PRESENTS

SOUTHERN WILLAMETTE VALLEY SKIING/SNOWBOARDING VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION AT HOODOO SKI AREA

Why: To give an opportunity to learn basic fundamentals and skills for volunteering with NWABA programming. This hands-on evening will include skiing/snowboarding, and learning how to guide individuals with visual impairments. We will also go over different visual impairments, and how to adapt instructional techniques to each of them.

Who: Open to people who want to help individuals who are blind or visually impaired be more physically active in their community. This is a great opportunity for our volunteers to gain instructional skills and grow their confidence when working with this community.

Where: Hoodoo Ski Area
27400 Big Lake Road
Sisters, OR 97759

When: Friday, January 26, 2018

Time: 6:00pm-8:00pm

To register, please call or email Joanne Smyth
