VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION EUGENE, OREGON

- Why: To give an opportunity to learn basic fundamentals and skills for volunteering with NWABA programming. This hands-on day will include hiking, and learning how to guide individuals with visual impairments through a hike. We will also go over different visual impairments, and how to adapt to each of them.
- Who: Open to people who want to help individuals who are blind or have a visual impairment that want to be more physically active in the community. This is a great opportunity for the individual hoping to start volunteering, do more when volunteering, and feel more comfortable when working with this community in general
- Where: Mount Pisgah Arboretum
34901 Frank Parrish Rd
Eugene, OR 97405
- When: Saturday, April 28, 2018
- Time: 10:00am-1:00pm
