GREATER PORTLAND/VANCOUVER WATER SPORTS VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION

Why: To give an opportunity to learn basic fundamentals and skills for volunteering with NWABA programming. This hands-on day will include learning how to guide individuals with visual impairments through paddleboarding and tandem kayaking. We will also go over different visual impairments, and how to adapt to each of them.

Who: Open to people who want to help individuals who are blind or have a visual impairment that want to be more physically active in the community. This is a great opportunity for the individual hoping to start volunteering, do more when volunteering, and feel more comfortable

Where: Vancouver Lake: Vancouver, WA

When: Saturday, April 29, 2017

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm
