Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Sports Outreach/Camp Spark - This program provides opportunities for children, youth, adults and military veterans who are blind and visually impaired to become introduced to sport and physical activity. Participants participate in a variety of sports including goalball, judo, beep baseball, beep kickball, power lifting, track and field, tandem cycling, swimming, skiing, dragon boating, kayaking, paddle boarding, hiking, and more. The organization operated 600 Sports Outreach Program experiences during the fiscal year and delivered more than 1,900 program and services interactions. Most of the nearly 56,000 school-age children who are blind have never experienced any type of physical activity, this program is critical because it helps participants build confidence, enhance self-esteem, develop long-lasting friendships, improve their physical and muscular strength, and empowers them to excel in all areas of life. NWABA's residential camp program, Camp Spark, provides opportunities for children and youth, 8-15, with visual impairments the opportunity to participate in camp on a university campus or campground. This program impacted 80 children and youth through four sessions and early 438 hours of direct program service.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Scholarship/Grants Program - Our Scholarship Program awards grants to provide opportunities for children, youth, adults and military veterans who are blind and visually impaired the opportunity to attend local, regional, national, and international competitions. The program also provides funding to allow individuals to purchase equipment such as running shoes and adaptive aids to help them achieve their goals. In FY20 -21, scholarships were awarded to individuals with visual impairments. This program is critical because approximately 70% out of more than 1 million people nationwide who are blind are unemployed. Without our Scholarships/Grants program, many individuals would never have the opportunity to Reviewed and approved by Executive Director and finance committee prior to submission.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The Conflict of Interest Policy covers any interested person, or any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest. A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family: an ownership or investment interest in any entity with which NWABA has a transaction or arrangement; a compensation arrangement with NWABA or with any entity or individual with which NWABA has a transaction or arrangement; or a potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which NWABA is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Interested persons have the duty to disclose any actual or possible conflict of interest to the Board or Executive Committee.

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Board or Executive Committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board or Executive Committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

After exercising due diligence, the Board or Executive Committee shall determine whether NWABA can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonable possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board or Executive Committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in NWABA's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

The interested person may recuse himself or herself at any time from involvement in any decision or discussion in which the director believes he or she has or may have a conflict of interest, without going through the process for determining whether a conflict of interest exists.
